Dear Pastor and Friends,

We are so thankful that God is faithful in spite of many troubles we are going through in Togo and Burkina Faso. The security situation in Burkina Faso and north of Togo are not Good.

A new terrorist attack took place in Kpekpakandi in the north of our country (Togo) where we deplore eight deaths of our brave soldiers.

The fear is everywhere now. In spite in this troubled time People are receiving the Good News and are giving their life to the Lord. We love to praise God for what He is doing in both Countries.

Togo At Faith Baptist Church

We baptized nine new disciples (7 women and 2 men) at Faith Baptist church at Tsevie which it is the second one we held in this church.

At True Light Baptist Church Apedokoe

It is a joy for me to see my people back in church after two years of closing churches in Togo. Here are the pictures of attendance now at True Light Baptist Church at Apedokoe. It is a blessing to see new faces in spite many restrictions.

Burkina Faso

On Easter Sunday we baptized thirteen people in Burkina Faso (8 women, 5 men). The terrorists want to take over the country, but the Christian faith is becoming increasingly stronger. Every week the Word of God is preached, and people are giving their life to the Lord. Holy Ghost is touching the heart of people of different ages.

Pray that God will give us the strength to fight for our faith in the mighty God, find more supporting churches and the solution of many challenges we are facing; such as land situation to support the growing of the churches.
